Report

Rangoli Competition

On October 23, 2019, Shri Pragya Mahavidyalaya hosted an engaging and colorful Rangoli competition. The event, aimed at celebrating and showcasing the traditional art form of Rangoli, saw enthusiastic participation from students across various departments.

The competition began at 10 AM in the college courtyard, which was beautifully decorated with vibrant flowers and festive decorations. Participants were provided with all necessary materials, including coloured powders, flowers, and other decorative items.

The theme for the competition was "Festivals of India," and participants were required to create Rangoli designs that reflected the rich cultural heritage and diversity of Indian festivals. Students displayed immense creativity and skill, producing intricate and stunning designs that captured the essence of various festivals such as Diwali, Holi, and Pongal.

The judges for the competition were renowned artists from the local community, including Ms. Priyadarshini Mishra, Mr. Mithlesh Sharma, and Ms. Anjali Verma. They assessed the Rangoli designs based on criteria such as creativity, theme relevance, colour combination, and overall presentation.

After careful deliberation, the judges announced the winners. The first prize was awarded to Divya Sharma from the Arts Department for her exquisite depiction of Diwali celebrations. The second prize went to Rohan Mehta from the Science Department for his vibrant Holi-themed Rangoli, and the third prize was given to Meena Patel from the Commerce Department for her intricate design representing Pongal.

The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where the winners were felicitated with trophies and certificates by the Director Dr. Navalsingh Jain. In his address, Dr. Jain praised the participants for their exceptional talent and encouraged them to continue exploring and preserving the cultural traditions of India.

Overall, the Rangoli competition was a grand success, fostering a sense of creativity, cultural appreciation, and camaraderie among the students. It was a delightful celebration of art and tradition, leaving everyone looking forward to more such events in the future.
