Rangoli Competition Report

Shri Pragma Mahavidyalaya

Date 15 Oct 2022

On October 15, 2022, our institution organized a vibrant and culturally enriching event, the "Rangoli Competition." Rangoli, a traditional Indian art form, involves creating intricate and colorful patterns on the floor using colored powders, rice, flour, or flower petals. This competition aimed to celebrate creativity, teamwork, and the rich cultural heritage of India.

The competition was structured on a department-wise basis, with each Head of Department (HoD) forming a team comprising students and a lecturer from their respective departments. This approach fostered inter-departmental collaboration and healthy competition among different academic units.

Several departments enthusiastically participated in the competition, showcasing their artistic talents and creativity. The event witnessed active involvement from departments including:

Department of Humanities, Department of Science, Department of Computer Science, Department of Commerce, Department of Business Administration.

A panel of esteemed judges, consisting of faculty members and invited guests with expertise in art and culture, evaluated the Rangoli designs based on the following criteria:

1. Creativity and Originality: Uniqueness and innovation in design concepts.
2. Symmetry and Precision: Accuracy and balance in the execution of patterns.
3. Use of Colors: Harmony, contrast, and vibrancy of colors employed.
4. Overall Impression: Impactfulness and aesthetic appeal of the Rangoli composition.

After careful deliberation, the judging panel announced the winners based on the aforementioned criteria. The first, second, and third place winners were awarded trophies and certificates of merit. Additionally, special recognition was given to teams demonstrating exceptional teamwork, dedication, and artistic expression. The first prize goes to Department of Science, Second Prize was secured by Department of Humanities.

We express our sincere thanks to the management, faculty, and staff of the institution for their unwavering support and encouragement in organizing the Rangoli Competition. Special appreciation goes to the organizing committee for their meticulous planning and execution, ensuring the success of the event.
