Report on Independence Day Celebration - August 15, 2022

Independence Day, celebrated on August 15th, marks the day India achieved freedom from British rule in 1947. Shri Pragya Mahavidyalay celebrated this significant occasion with enthusiasm and patriotism, honoring the nation's journey and achievements.

The Independence Day celebration at Shri Pragya Mahavidyalay on August 15, 2022, was a grand event attended by students, faculty, and staff. The presence of the Chief Guest, Mr. Premraj Ji Bohra added to the event's prestige. The celebration included a variety of performances and recognitions that highlighted the spirit of freedom and national pride.

Activities:

1. Flag Hoisting Ceremony:

The day began with the hoisting of the national flag by the Chief Guest, Mr. Premraj Bohra, followed by the singing of the national anthem. Mr. Bohra delivered an inspiring speech, reflecting on India's freedom struggle, the sacrifices of our freedom fighters, and the importance of upholding the values of democracy and unity.

2. Best Employee Award:

The college recognized the hard work and dedication of its staff by presenting the Best Employee Award. This year's recipient was Mr. Ramesh Keer, honored for their exemplary performance and commitment to the institution's mission and values.

3. Dance Performance by B.Sc. III Students:

The students of B.Sc. III presented a captivating dance performance that showcased the rich cultural heritage of India. The performance, filled with energy and grace, received enthusiastic applause from the audience.

Conclusion:

The Independence Day celebration at Shri Pragya Mahavidyalay was a memorable event that brought together the college community in a spirit of unity and patriotism. The diverse activities and recognitions underscored the importance of independence and the collective responsibility to uphold the nation's values.
